

Fuse online Quarterly Research Seminar - 9.30-11.00am October 14th 2020

Embedding a research culture in local government. Findings from the LACoR study

Programme

9.30am	Welcome and housekeeping <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Professor Ashley Adamson, Fuse Director, Newcastle University (Chair)
9.40	Speakers <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Dr Mandy Cheetham, Research Fellow, NENC ARC, Northumbria University • Dr Sam Redgate, Research Associate, Newcastle University How to embed a research culture in local government? Main findings from the LACoR study
10.00	Response <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Clare Humble, Insights Manager, Newcastle City Council A practice perspective on research and knowledge use in local government / How we have used the LACoR findings in Newcastle City Council?
10.10	Q&A Questions from the audience to speakers submitted via chat and chaired by Ashley Adamson.
10.20	Breakout rooms in Zoom: Each group will explore the following questions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Do the findings presented fit with your experience of using evidence in different settings? • What, if any, are the risks or unintended consequences of trying to embed a culture of evidence use in local government? • What are the implications of the findings for academia / policy / practice?
10.50	Feedback of main points to emerge in group discussions
10.55	Ashley - chair's closing remarks and next steps (ENABLE)